DOWNTOWN DIRECTORY

JANUARY – JUNE 2015

A publication of the Downtown Phoenix Partnership and Downtown Phoenix Inc.

ABOUT THE COVER

The Paseo de ALAC, or alleyway behind the Arizona Latino Arts & Cultural Center (ALAC), is a creative space activation and mural project. Influenced by the artists' indigenous roots, the unused space is being reimagined in a way that celebrates the past while looking into the future. The vision is a vibrant community gathering place that bridges arts, culture, tourism and downtown businesses. For more information about Paseo de ALAC and the first portion of the mural project, visit the Arizona Latino Arts & Cultural Center at 147 E. Adams Street.

ABOUT THE ARTISTS

JOSE ANDRES GIRON
Heavily influenced by his family, which were early settlers in the Southwest, Jose Andres Giron's artwork harkens back to childhood memories of his grandmother's cattle ranch and living in the Golden Gate Barrio of Phoenix. As a proud veteran, he used his G.I. benefits to attend art school and has been heavily involved in the Latino arts movement ever since. He continues to draw inspiration from his roots and the enchanted lands of the Southwest. Contact him at joseandresgiron@gmail.com or visit www.joseandresgiron.com.

CARLOS RIVAS
Carlos Rivas' distinctive "shape-shifters," which can be seen in murals around the city, are inspired by the energy, growth and change he's witnessed in Downtown Phoenix over the past 17 years. Individuals see different things in the abstract figures he designs, which is why the interpretation is fluid and shifting. Each unique form is a reflection of the music he listens to, friends and family who inspire him and the vibrant urban landscape around him. Contact him at servousnystem@yahoo.com.

ABOUT THE PHOTOGRAPHERS

NADER ABUSHHAB
A local photographer with a passion for downtown arts and culture, Nader Abushhab loves to shoot fashion, architecture and portraits. Finding art in simplicity and fine details drives his aesthetic vision. He enjoys collaborating with other artists, local designers and working with the broader creative community. Contact him at info@nbmaphotography.com or visit www.nbma.photography.com.

BRENDA EDEN
Brenda Eden photographs engagements, weddings and other special events. When she's not hanging out at local coffee shops, Eden can be found shooting portraits or street photography around Downtown Phoenix. Email her at brenda.eden@gmail.com.

JIM LOUVAU
An internationally published photographer, Jim Louvau got his start in photography while attending Ironwood High School and shooting local music at age 16. A musician himself, Louvau has photographed over 1,000 shows as well as multiple album covers and magazine features. Contact him at jlouvau@gmail.com or visit www.louvau.com.

Follow the Beat

Music is woven into the urban fabric of downtown. Whether it's one-man bands, national acts or local favorites taking the stage, finding a show is easy — it's choosing one that's the challenge.

Get up close to your favorite—or next favorite—band at one of downtown's newest venues: Last Exit Live. The intimate space is located in an unassuming building in the Warehouse District and programs a variety of shows, from the nationally renowned to the obscure.

If open floor plans and old warehouses are more to your taste, check out The Pressroom, a 14,000-square-foot warehouse—a spacious venue for enthusiastic fans to twirl, groove or dance to their heart's desire.

With a few years under its belt and tons of community support, Crescent Ballroom continues to bring local and national talent to the stage. Housed in what was once an industrial garage, Crescent Ballroom is a local mainstay—loved for its solid line-up, nightly performances, full bar and kitchen, and first-rate patio.

If you love smooth jazz and want to hear it from the pros, visit The Nash in the Roosevelt Row Arts District. As a nonprofit, the venue is dedicated to supporting classic jazz by offering a refined space for musicians to share the music that they love. And don't forget to bring the drinks—the venue is BYOB (bring your own booze.)

Though the performance space and patio may be small—it's well worth the trip to see The Lost Leaf. The 1920s bungalow-turned-bar has free shows every night of the week and is a go-to for great live music, wine and beer.

Sip and Savor

Whether morning or night, what's in the glass is as important as what's on the plate. And since nothing satisfies the palette quite like an expertly-crafted drink, try these local favorites serving up fine liquid gold, sure to quench even the most insatiable thirst.

For your morning brew, head to Cartel Coffee Lab, where you'll find a rotating list of specialty coffees complemented by a fully stocked pastry case, each decadent treat made fresh daily. The local shop is famous for its cappuccino, a warm combination of espresso and milk topped with velvety smooth foam.

Bitter & Twisted Cocktail Parlour may be the new kid in town, but it boasts a bar staff full of veteran mixologists. Behind the frosted glass windows lies a vintage lounge with a bar menu that includes over 50 craft cocktails. Try the Accidental Connoisseur, a citrusy, bittersweet concoction that is the epitome of class and elegance.

A historical landmark in downtown, Hanny's is a go-to for both classic and signature cocktails. The three-story restaurant is a not-to-be-missed experience with eclectic gimmicks at each turn: a transparent floor looking into the basement, hallways made of mirrors, elusive restrooms door and a quirky basement.

The cocktails at District American Kitchen & Wine Bar and Blue Hound Kitchen & Cocktails are heralded for their fresh bitters and syrups, made in-house with seasonal, local ingredients. You'll find the ice at Blue Hound comes in different shapes and sizes—custom fit to the drink—and District's "Cocktail of the Day" is often inspired by what's growing on the fourth-floor garden.

Explore the Alternatives

Whether you're gluten-free, vegan, vegetarian or have a food allergy, these downtown restaurants prepare some of the best food and drinks in town, catered to almost any dietary need.

Besides refreshing cold-pressed juices, GrabbaGreen specializes in nutritious meals and smoothies, most of which are gluten-free, vegetarian or vegan and perfect for diners on the go.

Start the day off right with the Veggie Hash, a savory combo of egg, yam, black beans and avocado, or peruse the long list of lunch options, all of which are chock-full of whole grains, fruits and vegetables. There's even a build-your-own option for the truly adventurous. Plus breakfast is served all day.

For a truly local dining experience, check out the Phoenix Public Market Café, which is a safe haven for those with special dietary needs. All the menu items are clearly labeled and feature the freshest meat, dairy and produce from Arizona vendors.

Avoiding gluten and meat? The Evans Churchill is a go-to healthy breakfast item, with two poached eggs and local vegetables over a bed of quinoa. The creamy lentil curry soup made with coconut milk is vegan and gluten-free—no special orders needed.

If you're craving Italian, head to The Strand Urban Italian, which subs gluten-free pasta by request and ensures it stays far away from its counterpart. For everyone's favorite pie, those allergic to cow's milk can enjoy La Piazza Locale's house-made mozzarella di bufala on any pizza, which are baked to perfection in a brick oven. For a customized pizza, head to Pizza Studio or Fired Pie, which both offer gluten-free crust.

Local's Guide to Downtown

From historic buildings to contemporary street art, discovering something new in Downtown Phoenix is just a short walk or bike ride away. Using this guide alongside the directory map, experience the vibrant art, culture and history pulsing through the city streets. Can't find what you're looking for? Ask one of the Downtown Phoenix Ambassadors for the scoop on the latest local's-approved hot spot or how to schedule a free walking tour.

ART

Roosevelt Row Art District

From Fillmore Street to McDowell Road, between Seventh Avenue and 16th Street

Take a stroll north along First Street and discover amazing murals, the Space Between pop-up park and other hidden gems along the way to the Roosevelt Row Arts District. Just a 10-minute walk from the Urban Core is an art lover's paradise with galleries, boutique shops, art houses and fabulous locally-owned bars and restaurants. On First and Third Fridays, the neighborhood comes alive as dozens of galleries and spaces open their doors for a free art walk.

Grand Avenue Art District

Lower Grand Avenue between Van Buren and Roosevelt streets

Download the mobile app for Grid Bike Share and take a short ride to the emerging arts community of Lower Grand Avenue. Look for some of the most colorful street art in town while cruising down the lime green bike paths. It's the perfect place to explore the oldest remaining commercial district, while taking in the funkier side of downtown. Grand Avenue also participates in First and Third Fridays, keeping its galleries, restaurants and retail shops open late.

Saint Mary's Basilica

Q12 231 N. Third Street

Completed in 1914 using Spanish Colonial-style architecture, Saint Mary's Basilica provides a welcome refuge from the hubbub of the city. Walking down the quiet aisles feels like a journey through time, with its beautiful golden alters, Roman columns and huge stained glass windows—the largest collection in the state. Each window is a truly unique work of art and brightly-colored spectacle during the light of day.

HISTORY

Orpheum Theatre

S6 203 W. Adams Street

Built in 1929, the restored Orpheum Theatre hosts a variety of music, theatrical and dance performances throughout the year. For those looking to get a behind-the-scenes look at this beautiful building, book a free tour to learn about its rich and storied history.

Hotel San Carlos

Q8 202 N. Central Avenue

Billed as the most luxurious hotel in the West when it opened in 1928, the hotel lobby features travertine-tiled floors, Austrian crystal chandeliers and copper-clad elevator doors. The likes of Marilyn Monroe, Clark Gable, Cary Grant and Ingrid Bergman regularly graced the hallways, pool area and cocktail lounge. While the hotel emanates old Hollywood glamour, the building site actually dates back to 1874, where the first schoolhouse in Phoenix was built.

Luhrs Building

U8 11 W. Jefferson Street

Completed in 1929, the 14-story Art Deco Luhrs Tower and 10-story Neoclassical Luhrs Building have been carefully restored after a decade-long revitalization process. With the recent opening of Bitter & Twisted Cocktail Parlour, a speakeasy-style lounge on the ground floor, and plans for two hotels, restaurants and retail spaces, the Luhrs City Center, as it's now dubbed, is well on its way back to Roaring Twenties-style glory.

CULTURE

Herberger Theater Center

Q11 222 E. Monroe Street

From a Lunch Time Theater show for $6 to a performance by the Arizona Theatre Company or Center Dance Ensemble, the Herberger Theater Center has enough artistic diversity under one roof to fill your cultural quota for the year. There's also a free art gallery on the second floor and a beautiful array of bronze "dancing" statues by artist John Waddell on display outside the theater.

Valley Youth Theatre

N10 525 N. 1st Street

With a company composed almost entirely of children and young adults, the young thespians of the Valley Youth Theatre (VYT) show off some serious acting chops. Winner of dozens of awards and credited with bringing the likes of Emma Stone and many other young actors to stardom, VYT provides exceptional entertainment for the whole family.

Arizona Latino Arts and Cultural Center

S10 147 E. Adams Street

The Arizona Latino Arts and Cultural Center (ALAC) strives to promote Latino culture through art, advocacy and collaboration. With an amazing Tiendita, or little gift shop, complete with everything from high-end original paintings to souvenirs, this is the perfect place to find a slice of Arizona's Latin roots.

Our Team

Downtown Phoenix Field Services

The Field Services Team for Downtown Phoenix Inc., which consists of the Ambassadors and Streetscape Team Members, creates meaningful experiences and a beautiful environment for all those living, working and visiting downtown. As the most visible presence within the district, members of the Field Services Team take great pride in enhancing the community via personal concierge experiences and keeping public spaces clean and inviting. Learn a little more about the Ambassadors and Streetscape Team below:

DOWNTOWN PHOENIX AMBASSADORS

Think of the Downtown Phoenix Ambassadors as a roving personal concierge service for Downtown Phoenix. On duty seven days a week, 365 days a year, the Ambassadors aim to help you at no cost — whether that means recommending the best happy hour, arranging a walking tour, personally escorting you to your destination or even helping you find your car. Just look for a bright orange shirt that says "Ask Me." You can find an ambassador:

Monday – Friday
6:30 a.m. to 11 p.m.
Saturday – Sunday
8 a.m. to 11 p.m.

Visit the Downtown Phoenix Information Center located in the US Bank Building on Adams Street between Central and First avenues to find a wealth of information including coupons, brochures, maps and more. An Ambassador is always available at the desk to help answer your questions.

8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Phoenix, AZ 85003

DOWNTOWN PHOENIX STREETSCAPE TEAM

Maintaining Downtown Phoenix as a clean, inviting and comfortable neighborhood is the main priority of Streetscape Team members. The Streetscape Team works to improve the outdoor experience of every person living, working and visiting downtown's Business Improvement District. In addition to planting trees, landscaping, cleaning streets and removing graffiti, the team carries out streetscape planning and development services in collaboration with the City of Phoenix, neighborhood groups and community organizations. Wearing bright green, gray and black uniforms, the Streetscape Team makes the Business Improvement District sparkle. You'll see them out and about from 6 a.m. to 3 p.m.
